

What is Safeguarding?

“Safeguarding” covers more than the contribution made to child protection in relation to individual children. It encompasses issues such as:

- pupil health and safety
- bullying, including cyberbullying
- child sexual exploitation
- arrangements for meeting the medical needs of children
- first aid
- school security
- drugs and substance misuse

There may also be other safeguarding issues that are specific to the local area or school.

Governing Bodies' Responsibilities

The Governing Body should ensure that:

- their school has effective policies and procedures and monitors the school's compliance with them
- their school operates safe recruitment procedures and carries out appropriate checks on all staff and volunteers
- their school has procedures for dealing with allegations of abuse against members or staff and volunteers
- a senior member of the school leadership team is designated to take the lead for child protection issues (Designated Safeguarding Lead – DSL), who also supports staff, liaises with the LA and works with other agencies
- the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) undertakes multi-agency child protection training that is refreshed every 2 years

- the Headteacher and all other staff who work with children undertake appropriate training that is regularly updated
- they remedy without delay any deficiencies or weaknesses in regard to child protection arrangements that are brought to their attention
- nominates a Designated Safeguarding Governor (DSG)
- they review their policies and procedures annually and provide information to the LA about how they have discharged these duties

Responsibilities of the Designated Safeguarding Governor (DSG)

The Designated Safeguarding Governor (DSG) should:

- act as the link person between the governing body and the school's designated officers
- review safeguarding procedures/practices including access to training
- liaise with the Local Authority and/or partner agencies in the event of allegations of abuse being made against the Headteacher
- undertake multi-agency child protection training
